JW Marriott Savannah Plant Riverside District

500 W River St, Savannah, Georgia

March 29-April 1, 2026

#ECOSSpring26

With its iconic Spanish moss and a large swath of freshwater marshland – along with booming tourism and manufacturing and one of the nation’s busiest ports – Savannah serves as a vivid illustration of the coexistence of nature and commerce. Against this backdrop, the Spring Meeting showcases ways to balance environmental protection and economic development. Sessions will explore state environmental agency successes in the areas of wetlands protection, water infrastructure and affordability, cooperative federalism amid delegation and deregulation, resilience, PFAS and land cleanup, artificial intelligence, data centers, workforce solutions, and more. Also sure to make a splash is an interactive Shark Tank on water reuse. The ECOS member agencies in Georgia and South Carolina will jointly host the gathering in a display of regional cooperation.

- 1) Except where highlighted in green, all sessions are open to all registrants, including press.
- 2) ECOS encourages a climate of open discussion among all meeting attendees, not only state leaders seated around the plenary table. Please ask a question or offer input during Q&A.
- 3) River Landing, District Live, and Salzburg Ballroom & Terrace are located on the ground level of the JW Marriott's Atlantic Building. Amethyst 1 and 2 and Kessler Boardroom are located on the ground level of JW Marriott's Power Plant Building.
